

I opened my clothing boutique Scout & Molly's six years ago. Over the past six years I have tried just about every advertising venue possible. I have to say that my experience with Triangle Style has been first class. I have gotten more of a response from customers from my Triangle Style ads than from any other media venue. The staff there are so easy to work with and make it such a fun advertising experience.

I would recommend Triangle Style to anyone in the style / fashion / beauty business or those who are targeting people interested in style and fashion.

I would like to thank you and Triangle Style Magazine for developing a venue designed for retailers to inform the public of their merchandise and services. Triangle Style is the one stop magazine for the customer to find out; who and where has what, and what are the latest fashions. Too many life style magazines focus on real-estate and financial services. Your ad designers have been exceptional in developing unique and beautiful ads for our store. Customer service and timeliness of the staff is also exceptional. Finally, we love the Trends section and the ability to have our store linked to it. I cannot wait until you expand Triangle Style Magazine to other geographical locations in North Carolina.

Having been in the salon industry for nearly 20 years, I realize the importance of marketing. Raleigh is growing so quickly, our growth in the salon can no longer be solely reliant on word of mouth. I have found the new people to our area are looking to print advertising and the internet to find the things they want. Fewer are the days that people come in saying they approached a stranger in the mall asking where or who did their hair. I started advertising with Triangle Style Magazine with the inaugural issue. Our ads with this magazine, have always been created by the staff at Triangle Style, and I have NEVER been disappointed. From the beginning, Erica came into my salon, sat with me, and really learned about our style. And she transfers our image and philosophy in every issue. Our clients love the magazine because it is trendy and the compilation of advertisers aren't what you see in every other advertising source.

Through the growth of Triangle Style, one thing has not changed, and that is the commitment to their clients. It is personal, dependable, and most of all, it delivers results!
