

OUR TOP TEN TRIANGLE

BURGERS

Warmer weather means grilling out, but if you don't have the time or inclination, there are plenty of Mouthwatering Burgers, Both Traditional and Veggie, in the Triangle to tempt your tastebuds. Check out our list of the top ten.. — Lauren Connelly

AL'S BURGER SHACK

516 West Franklin Street,
Chapel Hill 919.904.7659

Everyone around here knows about Al's! This award-winning spot is committed to using locally sourced hormone- and antibiotic-free beef from pasture-raised cattle. One big-time menu favorite is the Bobo Chili Cheeseburger that comes with chili sauce, slaw, chopped onions, yellow mustard, and American cheese, all served on a scrumptious buttered potato bun. Add an order of house-made sweet potato fries and wash it all down with a Maple View Farm milkshake for the perfect meal.

Available for lunch and dinner, Monday-Saturday.

BIN 54

1201 Raleigh Road,
Chapel Hill 919.969.1155

Known as one of the best steakhouses in America, Bin 54 serves up more casual fare along with all the fancy stuff. Though the burger selection is limited, you're still sure to have a memorable meal. For $20, you can get a tantalizing burger along with a generous portion of crispy house cut fries.

Available for dinner only, Monday-Saturday.

CORBETT'S BURGERS AND SODA BAR

126 Kilmayne Drive,
Cary 919.466.0055

If you're in the mood for a brunch burger, head to Corbett's and order the Gouda Morning. This tasty burger's topped with gouda cheese, a fried egg, lettuce, tomatoes, maple syrup bacon, and so-dalicious orange sauce. Add a hashbrown if you're feeling especially adventurous. Choose your drink from over 250 varieties of vintage, craft, and artisan glass-bottled sodas.

Available for lunch and dinner, Monday-Saturday. Added bonus - Corbett's delivers!

MOJOE'S BURGER JOINT

620 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh
919.832.6799

Serving hand-pattied Premium Sterling Silver beef in three sizes based on how hungry you are, MoJoe's has been at the burger game for over 15 years. If you like spicy, order the Inferno. It's topped with grilled jalapenos and onions, along with ghost pepper jack cheese. Vegetarians can substitute a black bean or veggie burger for the beef. A wide variety of additional toppings are at the ready for ultimate sandwich customization. Available for lunch, dinner, and late night, every day of the week.

PITTSBORO ROADHOUSE

39 West Steet,
Pittsboro 919.542.2432

If you need an excuse to go to Pittsboro, let it be the Deep South burger at the Roadhouse. This decadent sandwich is topped with everything that makes this region great: pimento cheese, fried green tomatoes, mac and cheese, pickled onions, and Carolina BBQ sauce. If you don't like beef, you can choose a chicken breast, portobello, or turkey patty instead. Sides include chips, slaw, or fries.

Available for lunch and dinner, Monday-Saturday.

THE REMEDY DINER

927 West Morgan Street,
Raleigh 919.835.3553

For the vegans and vegetarians among us, check out The Remedy Diner. For the past decade, this eatery has been catering to carnivores and non-meat eaters alike. One of the many menu standouts is the black bean burger, topped with lettuce, red onions, tomatoes, pickles, mustard, and vegan mayo. Countless tasty extras are on hand for maximum customization.

Available for lunch and dinner, every day of the week.

SAXAPAHAW GENERAL STORE

1735 Bethlehem Church Road,
Saxapahaw 336.376.5332

Billing themselves as "your local five-star gas station," this unassuming general store serves up more sophisticated dishes than you would expect. For a change of pace, try the lamb burger accented with ranch, feta, lettuce, tomatoes, and red onions all served on an English muffin. Get it with a side of rich potato salad for a satisfying meal. Available for lunch and dinner, every day of the week.

VEGAN COMMUNITY KITCHEN

803 East Williams Street,
Apex 919.372.5027

This neat little spot offers 100% vegan Mediterranean food. The flavorful Kitchen Burger includes sliced seitan doner kebab in place of a beef patty. Toppings include cheddar "cheese", tomatoes, red onions, pickles, lettuce, and BBQ sauce. For an extra authentic meal, get a side of stuffed grape leaves instead of fries. Available for lunch and dinner, every day except Tuesday (closed).

ZWELI'S KITCHEN

4600 Durham-Chapel Hill
Boulevard, Suite 26,
Durham 984.219.7555

Get a taste of Africa at this Zimbabwean eatery, named for its founder. Chef Zwelibanzi proudly offers several delectable vegan/vegetarian "burgers" including a veggie patty, a portobello, and a tomato/avocado smash. Get a side of peanut butter spiced collard greens if you know what's good for you. Available for lunch and dinner, Monday-Saturday.

FIVE GUYS

Everywhere 866.345.GUYS

Foodies beware, we're unapologetically adding Five Guys to this list as the best fast food burger. For over three decades, Five Guys has been offering consistently delicious burgers that can be customized in countless different ways. Get a side of fries and you'll be served enough of them to last you a lifetime. Munch on fresh peanuts while you wait for your food. Just an all-around gratifying experience time and time again.
